Agenda Item 1: Follow-up Items

1. Team identified issues for 05 - 06 (Jay)

Jay discussed the issues that each team should be working on and considering for ALC teams to be working on. Each team should list the top 5 issues and send feedback to Jay by Oct 5th.

Agenda Item 2: New Items

1. Access to student grades (Susan P)

Susan Parrish brought a request before the group, to restrict the counselors and administration from giving out grades of a [student] without teachers' consent. Each ALC group should have a word-for-word proposal brought to their groups to be discussed and voted on, please send results to Jay. (note: during the discussion Chris Church voiced a concern that all teachers should tell their students what grade they are making before the TNT changes.)

2. Career planner / New course proposals (Sandy K)

Sandy Kremers discussed the Career planner. Updates, corrections, and new class proposals should be turned in to Connie Dunn – deadline is December 1.

Agenda Item 3: Facilitator Input

- Susan Parrish stated that the rewards needs policy printed rules. It was discussed that rewards have not rules except for passes before class.
- Sandy Kremers stated that a more stable teacher format would be presented as to where each teacher will be for the rest of the year, very little changes.
- Chris Church is working on TNT data for tracking results.
- Mr. Tuck strongly suggested that every department should have a speaker for career day, Nov 11
- Mrs. Wells sent word that she will not be able to attend all steering meetings.
