

A Cool Trip

Number the sentences below in the correct order. Then rewrite the sentences in paragraph form.

 After leaving the visitors' center, I walked to the science center.

 The blue water made the cave look like a glacier from my science book.

 After playing games, I took a path uphill to an overlook deck.

 It was fun to play games and experiment in the science center.

 Finally, it was time to go home.

 Then I followed the path to a cave with a big window that looked into the polar bear pool.

 I first bought a map in the visitors' center.

Handwriting practice area with ten horizontal lines, framed by a decorative border of footprints.

ANSWER KEY

After leaving the visitors' center, I walked to the science center.

The blue water made the cave look like a glacier from my science book.

After playing games, I took a path uphill to an overlook deck.

It was fun to play games and experiment in the science center.

Finally, it was time to go home.

Then I followed the path to a cave with a big window that looked into the polar bear pool.

I first bought a map in the visitors' center.

I first bought a map in the visitors' center. After leaving the visitors' center, I walked to the science center. It was fun to play games and experiment in the science center. After playing games, I took a path uphill to an overlook deck. Then I followed the path to a cave with a big window that looked into the polar bear pool. The blue water made the cave look like a glacier from my science book. Finally, it was time to go home.