

Picking Produce

Underline each speaker's exact words. Color the apple if the sentence is punctuated correctly.

"Do you like red or yellow apples?" asked Mr. Reed.

I think the red ones are sweet, "Mom replied."

Mr. Reed said, "We have some red ones on sale."

"That is great news." Mom exclaimed!

Ben asked, do you have any red grapes?

Right over here "Mr. Reed" said.

Connor added, "I'd like some bananas as well."

"Mom replied we'll put some in the shopping cart."

Rewrite each incorrect sentence from above on the lines below using correct capitalization and punctuation.

Sentence
Number

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

ANSWER KEY

"Do you like red or yellow apples?" asked Mr. Reed.

I think the red ones are sweet, "Mom replied."

Mr. Reed said, "We have some red ones on sale."

"That is great news." Mom exclaimed!

Ben asked, do you have any red grapes?

Right over here "Mr. Reed" said.

Connor added, "I'd like some bananas as well."

"Mom replied we'll put some in the shopping cart."

2. "I think the red ones are sweet," Mom replied.
4. "That is great news!" Mom exclaimed.
5. Ben asked, "Do you have any red grapes?"
6. "Right over here," Mr. Reed said.
8. Mom replied, "We'll put some in the shopping cart."